

Scene of Mystery- audience sees action take place, but character not revealed

Example answers in italics

Action Mystery Character does (their identity is not revealed): puts bullets in a gun

Three character's in story that could have motive (this does not need to include the real character, as the audience will often not know their motive yet at this stage):

1. teenaged son
2. jealous neighbor
3. religious fanatic friend

Subtle clue in mis-en-scene that reveals who the mystery character is: grease under finger-nails
